

Mr. Winnipeg

Lucky golfer finally collects

OK, this isn't the biggest news in the city, but it's No. 1 on my list today because it's about something that happened in the summer, it involves someone winning money, and it'll take you to your happy place for just a few seconds, which is what Mr. Winnipeg is all about.

Just in from the fine folks at Wyatt Dowling Insurance: their presentation, last week, of the $25,000 golfer Curtis Leonhardt earned with a hole-in-one at the Friends of Sherry Oliver Tournament on Sept. 22 at La Salle Golf Course.

Took a while for the claim to process, of course, but the cheque is now in his grateful hands.

Leonhardt's shot was a lovely 162-yard drive on Hole 5. Fist pump!

Now everybody call him (at Terracon Development) and tell him what you want for Christmas!
